

HARRY WARNER

WEB DEVELOPER

SUMMARY

Looking for entry level front-end web development work, preferably working with React. Currently residing in Bristol, but ready to relocate. I'm passionate about the latest technologies and writing great code. Very eager to learn new languages, libraries and any platforms that are in keeping with modern front-end programming. I have an ability to hyper-focus and approach problems in a methodical way with thoroughness and patience which enables me to learn quickly and work fast. I get on very well with others and make friends easy.

SKILLS

- ✓ HTML5, CSS3 and JavaScript (ES6)
